RENO PHIL'S TIM YOUNG RECOGNIZED AS PATRIOTIC EMPLOYER

Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve (ESGR) Awards Patriot Award to Reno Phil's Tim Young

RENO, Nev. (July 29, 2016)— The Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve (ESGR) recently awarded the Patriot Award to Reno Phil CEO Tim Young for his support of military families. The Patriot Award is given to individuals, not organizations, and reflects the efforts made to support citizen warriors through a wide-range of measures including flexible schedules, time off prior to and after deployment, caring for families and granting leaves of absence if needed.

The Reno Phil has several military families on staff and recently helped coordinate surprise video messages at Pops on the River for families with military personnel currently deployed.

About the Reno Phil

The Reno Phil is northern Nevada's largest performing arts organization. In its 48th season, the orchestra, led by music director Laura Jackson, is comprised of more than 80 professional musicians who perform more than 30 concerts annually throughout the Reno-Tahoe region. Musicians of the professional orchestra, youth orchestras, various ensembles and education programs offer more than 60 performances each year, playing to more than 50,000 people. The flagship of the Reno Phil is its concert series offering six classic music series, Classix, performed on Sunday afternoons and Tuesday evenings at the Pioneer Center for the Performing Arts.
